As women who care about men in their life, it's not always easy to comprehend a man's perspective and expression of grief. Actually, for some women, it's incredibly frustrating and worrisome...

You're invited to listen-in-on a panel of bereaved men as they share with you glimpses of their stories of grief. We'll discuss these and other topics:

- 'Intuitive & Instrumental' ('Masculine & Feminine') Grieving
- Society's Response to Men and Grief
- Crying, Anger, Sexuality
- Denial, Avoidance, Triggers
- Similarities and Differences

Our hope is that this workshop will give you some effective tips to help you companion the grieving men in your life.
